107 Sanderson S$^{t}$
Miles Platting
July 29 1872

Dear Citizen Engels

The result of the Congress has been to give greater publicity to The International[a] in Manchester ~~then~~ than it ever attained before—

The criticisms in our papers were vile, especially in The Courier[b] if you have not seen them let me know and I will send them to you[.]

I have lost my situation[,] a place that I have been in 5 years[,] it will be very difficult for me to get another at least in Manchester[,] but I shall make great efforts to stay here—

For some cause or another the Manchester journals have a spite against my name although it is so common | and the system of espionage carried on in Manchester Commercial houses makes it impossible for a fellow to hide anything from his employers.

I am glad to say that the adverse criticisms have had the effect of making all our members very determined and has converted cowards into heroes; verily our journalists have much to learn.

Dupont[c] has written to Heys[d] asking for the resolutions passed at the Congress[e]; I shall send them in a few days—Hales[g] and Roach[h] took with them to London the “Reporters Notes” and promised to let me have them at once[,] have not receive [d] them yet; although I have written for them.

Yours Fraternally
E Jones
